The Prison Rape Elimination Act of 2003 has made it critical for correctional agencies to build capacity to address sexual abuse of offenders. Elimination of such abuse requires a systemic approach that encompasses policy, leadership, operational practices, physical plant issues and investigative protocols. A key element of this systemic approach is training.

The goal of this training is to have competent trainers in every Jail and DOC Division who will educate others about the Prison Rape Elimination Act (PREA), to enhance inmate orientation programs through the inclusion of PREA training materials, and to provide trainers with the necessary resources to train their staff.

Upon completion of this training, participants will be able to:

- ✓ Demonstrate their ability to utilize the PREA video series and facilitator's guides, to facilitate discussions dealing with sensitive topics, such as sexual behavior, sexual violence and, homosexuality;
- ✓ Demonstrate their understanding of the information in the videos and facilitator's guides;
- ✓ Demonstrate their knowledge, skills and abilities to teach other correctional professionals about PREA;
- ✓ Demonstrate they have the knowledge, skills and abilities to teach inmates about PREA;
